

LEGAL ELITE

of the LOWCOUNTRY

METHODOLOGY

CHARLESTON BUSINESS

Charleston Business Magazine presents the inaugural Legal Elite of the Lowcountry, honoring area attorneys. Winners are chosen not by our staff but by local attorneys themselves. Legal Elite is the only program in the region that gives every active attorney the opportunity to participate.

Attorneys are allowed to nominate members of their own firm, but for each in-firm nomination there must also be an out-of-firm nomination. Voters are not allowed to vote for themselves.

This year, our feature those layers who earned the top votes in 20 categories. The winners are the Legal Elite for 2017, and we are pleased to honor them.
