

Pro Bono Awards

February 2018

The following are recent recognitions that the Firm has received for its pro bono efforts:

2017

2016

2015

DC Volunteer Lawyers Project selected Katherine DeStefano as its Civil Protection Order Volunteer of the Year. November 2017

The Firm received the North Carolina Large Law Firm Pro Bono Award by the N.C. Bar Association. June 2017

Robert Meriwether, Jase Glenn, Steven Joseph, and Peter Munk received Robert D. Spencer Volunteer Awards from Protection & Advocacy for People with Disabilities at their annual gala. April 2017

The Midlands Mediation Center honored Ed Mullins with a McKay Brabham Award for his volunteer mediation services. April 2017

Suhail Seth received a Volunteer of the Year Award from Atlanta Pro Bono Partnership. March 2017

Jennifer Mallory and Norah Rogers received the AARP Advocate of the Year Award for their work on the Report and Recommendations to improve services for vulnerable adults in South Carolina. February 2017

Wells Hall received the 2017 Janet Spragens Pro Bono Award from the American Bar Association for his work on the Adopt-A-Base Project. January 2017

George Cauthen received the 2016 Durant Distinguished Public Service Award from the S.C. Bar Foundation. January 2017

2017

2016

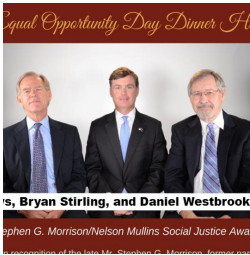

2015

Welvista recognized the Firm with a Champions Award in recognition of the work of board members Tim Madden and Sally Caver. December 2016

Dan Westbrook received the National Legal Aide & Defender Association 2016 Arthur von Briesen Award. November 2016

The South Carolina Urban League presented Dan Westbrook and Stuart Andrews, along with S.C. Department of Corrections Director Bryan Stirling, with the Steve Morrison Social Justice Award for their representation in the S.C. Department of Corrections prison case. November 2016

West Virginia Legal Aid recognized the West Virginia office with a Making the Difference Award for legal and outreach support to victims of the West Virginia flood. October 2016

The national Animal League Defense Fund honored the Firm with the 2016 ALDF Advancement of Animal Law Pro Bono Award. October 2016

Stuart Andrews received the 2016 Rev. Sen. Clementa C. Pinckney Award for Justice from the S.C. Appleseed Legal Justice Center. October 2016

Nominated by Atlanta Pro Bono Partnership, the Firm received the Georgia State Bar Business Law Pro Bono Award in recognition of the efforts of 64 Nelson Mullins lawyers who provided legal services on approximately 224 matters to nonprofits in Atlanta. October 2016

Stuart Andrews and Dan Westbrook were honored by the National Alliance on Mental Illness for their work to assist mentally ill prisoners. September 2016

Central South Carolina Habitat for Humanity presented the Halo Award to Nelson Mullins for its sustained pro bono work. April 2016

Jim Lehman received the USC Law School Compleat Lawyer award for his pro bono work, among other accomplishments. April 2016

The Firm received the Georgia Appleseed 2016 Good Apple Award for work on the study of Race, Law Enforcement & the Law Project in partnership with Georgia Appleseed and the Atlanta Bar Association. April 2016

Dennis Wicker was honored at the 2016 Champion for Children Gala by the NC Foundation for Public School Children for his lifetime service to education. April 2016

Norah Rogers was honored by the Palmetto Center for Women for pro bono services in the community. March 2016

George Cauthen received the J. Bratton Davis Pro Bono, Community and Professionalism Award. February 2016

Legal Services Corporation recognized Nelson Mullins for its pro bono work in Charleston, S.C. January 2016

2017

2016

2015

Jim Lehman received a Midlands Housing Alliance Award for his work to assist Columbia, S.C. with homeless issues. September 2015

Stuart Andrews received the USC Law School Compleat Lawyer award for his pro bono work. May 2015

Additional National Pro Bono Awards:

- Beacon of Justice Award (National Legal Aid and Defender Association)
- John Minor Wisdom Public Service and Professional Award (ABA Litigation Section)
- ABA Pro Bono Publico Award