

Government Relations

North Carolina

As a partner and practicing in the Raleigh office, former Lieutenant Governor Dennis Wicker heads up the Government Relations Practice Area for the firm. He also offers significant government relations counsel and expertise to clients and possesses vast experience in North Carolina government, having served in the Executive Branch of State Government as the State's second highest elected official from 1993-2001, and as a long-time member of the NC House of Representatives, being the first person to hold the position of Majority Leader in that Chamber his last two terms. He also has deep ties to the NC business community, serving on the Boards of Directors of Coca-Cola Consolidated, Inc., the country's largest Coke bottler, headquartered in Charlotte, and for First Bancorp, the State's largest community bank. Governor Wicker's extensive contacts in State and local governments and within the business community are an invaluable asset to the Nelson Mullins Government Relations Practice Area.

Dennis Wicker

George Teague

Partner George Teague is the team leader for the North Carolina Government Relations practice, focusing on lobbying at the North Carolina General Assembly and offices of the executive branch of state government for over 40 years. He also handles administrative and regulatory matters before state government agencies including the North Carolina Department of Insurance. Mr. Teague is well-known and highly respected in the halls of State Government and has been ranked in the Top 50 Most Influential Lobbyists by the North Carolina Center for Public Policy Research.

Dodie Renfer

Dodie Renfer assists with state and federal government relations and consults on legislative, regulatory, and policy matters. She has over 20 years experience in government affairs and operations at the local, state, and federal levels. She has led the development, outreach, and fundraising aspects for political candidates, elected officials, political organizations, and nonprofits. Ms. Renfer also has deep experience in monitoring and analyzing state and federal legislative activities, synthesizing summations and papers on the relevance of information, and maintaining bipartisan relationships with policymakers.