Litigator Rob Lindholm Joins Nelson Mullins in New York

NEW YORK (August 30, 2017)—Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP announced today that Robert L. Lindholm has joined the Firm's Litigation group as of counsel. Mr. Lindholm, who was most recently at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP, will be resident in the New York office and will focus his practice on complex business litigation, class action defense, government investigations and white collar defense, and eDiscovery and litigation readiness.

Mr. Lindholm has experience representing banks, hedge funds, and other Fortune 500 companies in complex commercial litigation and white collar and securities matters. In addition, he has appellate experience at both the federal and state levels. His background includes representing clients in federal and state courts, including in multidistrict litigation proceedings, and before federal and state regulators, including the Securities and Exchange Commission, Department of Justice, and Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Mr. Lindholm also completed a nine-month secondment in 2011 in the New York office of Goldman, Sachs & Co. in the Business Intelligence Group/Compliance Group.

A graduate of Union College (B.A., 2002) and Albany Law School (J.D., 2008), he is a member of the New York and Massachusetts bars. Prior to graduating law school, he served as a judicial intern, first for the Honorable David R. Homer, U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Northern District of New York, and then for the Honorable Anthony J. Carpinello, New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Third Department.

Established in 1897, Nelson Mullins has more than 550 attorneys and government relations professionals with offices in California, Colorado, the District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and West Virginia.
