Nelson Mullins' Randy Saunders Selected for Leadership West Virginia

HUNTINGTON – Leadership West Virginia has selected Randall L. Saunders, a partner in Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP's West Virginia office, for its 2018 Leadership Class.

The program consists of eight monthly two-day educational sessions from March through November. Each session is conducted in a different community and addresses key subjects and critical issues facing West Virginia. At each session, recognized authorities – practitioners, teachers, entrepreneurs, professionals, and analysts – provide information and insight into the selected topic. A variety of views is presented on each topic, and visits are made to local sites to reinforce, through observation and practical experience, the subject matter of the program.

Saunders chairs the Tax Lien Resolution & Litigation group and focuses his practice on complex litigation, class actions, banking and financial services litigation, regulatory compliance, real and personal property tax appeals, and real estate.
