Partner George Cauthen Recognized by the American Inn of Courts

Columbia—Nelson Mullins partner George Cauthen of the Columbia office has been honored as the 2018 recipient of the Bankruptcy Inn Alliance Distinguished Service Award presented by the American Inns of Court, joining only seven prior recipients among which include nationally eminent bankruptcy judges and lawyers. The award recognizes the recipient's ongoing dedication to the highest standards of the legal profession, the rule of law and the demonstration of personal ethics and integrity. The award will be presented to Cauthen at the 2018 Annual Conference of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges held on October 28-31, 2018. Cauthen focuses his practice in the area of creditor bankruptcy law and is a Certified Specialist in Bankruptcy Law by the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

According to the organization, the mission of the American Inns of Court is to inspire the legal community to advance the rule of law by achieving the highest level of professionalism through example, education, and mentoring. The association is comprised of lawyers, judges, and other legal professionals from all levels and backgrounds who share a passion for professional excellence.

Established in 1897, Nelson Mullins has more than 600 attorneys and government relations professionals with offices in 11 states and Washington, DC. For more information on the firm, go to www.nelsonmullins.com.
