Miami Managing Partner Mark F. Raymond to be Honored by American Jewish Committee

MIAMI – The American Jewish Committee (AJC) Miami Broward will honor Miami Managing Partner Mark F. Raymond in May with its 2019 Judge Learned Hand Award in recognition of his service to the profession and community. The award is given to those who exemplify the highest of principles, ethics, and integrity. It is named for noted jurist and civil liberties defender Judge Learned Hand, who revered the rights of individuals and the importance of democratic values.

Raymond has been involved in high-stakes complex commercial litigation for more than 35 years. His practice has included advising the boards of directors and general counsel of many prominent companies. He has been repeatedly recognized by many organizations for his litigation experience, including The Best Lawyers in America and international legal ranking organization Chambers and Partners.

AJC's mission is to enhance the well-being of the Jewish people and Israel and to advance human rights and democratic values in the United States and around the world. For more information, contact AJC at 305.670.1121.
