Experienced Government Relations Attorney Jamey Goldin Joins Nelson Mullins in Columbia

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP announced today that James H. “Jamey” Goldin has joined the firm as a partner in the Columbia, S.C. office. The experienced government relations attorney joins from Turner Padgett, where he was a shareholder.

Goldin represents clients in regulatory, administrative, and government relations matters. His practice is focused on energy, environmental, healthcare, insurance, and local government clients.

Goldin represents clients in proceedings before the S.C. Supreme Court, other levels of state and federal trial and appellate courts, the S.C. Department of Insurance, the S.C. Public Service Commission, and other federal governmental affairs. He is a registered lobbyist before the S.C. General Assembly. He is a former Chief Legal Counsel and Chief of Staff for the S.C. House of Representatives.

“We are pleased to welcome Jamey to our firm and our Federal/State Policy Team,” said Team Leader Edward E. Poliakoff. “Jamey brings a wealth of experience in South Carolina regulatory and government administrative matters that will benefit our clients and our team.”

Goldin earned his JD from the University of South Carolina School of Law and a BA in Political Science from the University of Georgia.

Established in 1897, Nelson Mullins has more than 785 attorneys and government relations professionals with offices in 11 states and Washington, DC. For more information on the firm, go to www.nelsonmullins.com.
