

News

July 17, 2019

Mark Stafford Appointed to Patent Rules Committee for U.S. District Court

Chief Judge D. Thomas Schroeder has appointed Winston-Salem partner Mark Stafford for a three-year term on the Patent Rules Committee for the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina.

As a member of the committee, Stafford will work with federal judges to establish rules and procedures for efficient and prompt management of complex federal patent infringement cases across a 24-county area of central North Carolina. Stafford has practiced commercial litigation for over thirty years, particularly in the areas of business, healthcare, employment, and complex technology litigation. He has been recognized by such publications as Acritas and Best Lawyers in America.

Established in 1897, Nelson Mullins has more than 800 attorneys and government relations professionals with offices in 11 states and Washington, D.C. For more information on the firm, go to www.nelsonmullins.com.

View on Website

These materials have been prepared for informational purposes only and are not legal advice. This information is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship. Internet subscribers and online readers should not act upon this information without seeking professional counsel.

PROFESSIONAL IN THE NEWS

Mark A. Stafford

Partner

T 336.774.3333

mark.stafford@nelsonmullins.com