Experienced Real Estate Attorney Anitra Androh Joins Nelson Mullins in D.C.

WASHINGTON – Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP announced today that Anitra D. Androh has joined the firm as a partner and will be based in the Washington, DC office. She joins from Miles & Stockbridge, where she was a principal.

Androh represents clients in commercial real estate transactions involving the buying, selling, and development of mixed-use, commercial, and residential (market rate and affordable) projects. She has extensive experience negotiating development agreements, construction agreements, construction management agreements, property management agreements, cost-sharing agreements, reciprocal easement agreements, and declaration of covenants, conditions, and restrictions.

Her practice also involves the creation of condominium regimes and the negotiation and settlement of warranty claims filed against developers by condominium associations. Androh also regularly represents clients in the preparation and negotiation of commercial leases.

Androh currently serves on the Board of Directors of the African American Real Estate Professionals of D.C. and serves on the Board of Directors of the District of Columbia Building Industry Association. She earned her JD from DePaul University College of Law (2001) and a BA, cum laude, from Valparaiso University (1998).

Established in 1897, Nelson Mullins has more than 800 attorneys and government relations professionals with offices in 11 states and Washington, D.C. For more information on the firm, go to www.nelsonmullins.com.
